Accreditation rules

1. Russian and foreign representatives of social and specialized media shall have the right to receive accreditation at the Global Fishery Forum & Seafood Expo Russia.
2. The organizing committee of the Global Fishery Forum & Seafood Expo Russia reserves the right to limit the number of accredited journalists and to refuse to provide accreditation to media representatives who provide inaccurate information about themselves, miss the deadline for requesting accreditation or fail to comply with the working regulations at an event.
3. Accredited journalists shall exchange e-ticket for their personal badge at the registration desk in Expoforum EC.
4. Accredited media representatives shall have the right:
 - to attend business and exhibition events;
 - to receive information on the event timetable;
 - to organize photo- and video shooting in the area where the event is taking place;
 - to make use of all services intended for journalists;
 - when applicable, to work in and make use of the facilities provided by the press centre during the event;
 - to attend press conferences, briefings, and other media events.
5. Accredited journalists are obliged:
 - to wear their badges at all times when working at an event;
 - to present identification or professional credentials when requested whilst they are carrying out their work;
 - not to interfere in an event which has not been specifically organized for the press;
 - to accurately report information;
 - to comply with event rules, and not to take photographs or film if so requested by security representatives at the event;
 - to give a reference to the name of the event and the source of the information when using;
 - official information or quotations from event participants in the published materials, photographs and videos.
6. Possession of accreditation does not imply access to invitation-only events.
